

FREE TRAINING FOR MEN FACING THE UNCERTAINTY OF DIVORCE...

“REVEALED: The Easiest, Lowest Hassle Way to Make it Through a Divorce Without Losing Money or Custody... Coming out the Other End Happier and Better Off in ALL Areas of Your Life!

VIDEO GOES HERE

Video reveals the true story of how I overcame 2 separate divorces and get to the point where my life is BETTER NOW than it EVER was before!

(start of script)

Hi, my name is E. James Marsh and what you see right there is a HALF MILLION DOLLARS!

That's right, $500,000. Lot of money, right? That's more than a lot of people make in a lifetime!

Well, I almost lost that much money in a divorce!

Can you imagine... losing THAT much money? Money YOU earned... to a woman who was supposed to be your soul mate?

But instead of being your life partner, she decides to take you to the cleaners and wipe you out financially!

Well, in the next few minutes of this video, you'll find out how I not only saved myself from losing that much money... I actually went through 2 separate divorces and didn't lose money OR custody.

After the divorces... I was happier, healthier, and in a better place... where I am today.

And as you watch this video, you'll see how I was able to get through what could have been VERY tough times and instead... went through it a lot easier, with less stress and with less hassle.

Like I said, this video will show you how I prevented losing a lot of money, losing custody of my kids, and pretty much kept from losing my mind!

Better yet, you'll discover how to come away from your divorced emotionally and financially unscathed... and actually a better, happier man like I was able to do.

Now, if you're watching this video right now, I'm going to assume you're going through or about to go through a divorce.

And if you're not careful, it could end up costing you pain, heartache, money, and you time with your kids.

But just because you hear horror stories about people who've gone through a divorce ... that doesn't mean it has to be that way for you.

Like I mentioned, I've gone through 2 divorces and actually came away BETTER off, so there's no reason you can't go through yours with less hassle.

If you know a few simple tips, you can make it easier on yourself and your kids, less painful for you emotionally, you can save money and get more time with your kids.

Unfortunately, I see so many of my friends who've gone through a painful divorce... and it crushes them. Whether they're a mess financially or they're emotionally crushed... a lot of guys just aren't prepared to handle a divorce.

It usually takes them a while before they're back to being themselves. Some guys never get over the pain and heartache of divorce.

Losing most of your money can really do a number on your confidence. And not being able to see your kids as much as you want can really cause you heartache and pain.

This is the biggest reason why most guys don't bother dating again for a while. The pain of the divorce is too overwhelming and too painful. They don't want to put themselves "out there" again so soon... and risk another emotionally crushing experience.

It's tough to date when you're heartbroken from missing your kids, or financially broke and can't afford to bring a date somewhere nice.

So, the combination of these things can make it tough to even want to get back out there and date again.

That's why I took the time to make this short video. I want to show guys just how much easier divorce can be for you. You can make it a lot faster, less stressful, and less financially crushing.

When you have a plan to follow, especially one from a guy who has gone through 2 divorces and came out better off, you can feel confident that you'll be okay too.

In fact, I'll show you how you can enjoy more peace of mind through the entire process and come away from it better and stronger than before!

Not only that, I'll share some tips that will prevent you from losing everything important to you – like your kids, your money, your health, your sanity, your house, and more.

Now, just one word of warning. You'll probably want to watch this now if you're going through or about to go through a divorce because this will help you immediately.

You don't want to wait until you realize most of YOUR money is about to become HERS. You don't want to wait until you realize she's trying to get full custody of your kids.

Being prepared can help alleviate a lot of the stress, worry and anxiety that comes from the unknown.

Let's face it, divorce is tough and there's a lot that can come up that you're not ready for.

So if you want to make it through your divorce with less stress, worry, and anxiety... if you want to come out better off... if you want a low hassle divorce where you don't lose your money or your kids, watch this video right now.

Now, you may think you're well prepared to handle your divorce, but I can tell you from personal experience that things can come up that you're just not prepared for.

It happened to me, I thought I'd just wing it. Well, that almost cost me $500,000!

So, whether it's financial stuff that could cause you to take a hit to the wallet or custody issues that make it so you see your kids less... it's tough to be ready for everything.

Well, unless you're like me, and you've gone through 2 divorces and know almost anything that could come up and how to handle it.

That's why I made this video... to make it easier for you to go through divorce, so you're not financially screwed out of money that's rightfully yours. Or so you don't end up forfeiting the right to see your kids as much as you want.

I've spent the last few years keeping track of all the different circumstances that came up during my divorces and how I handled them so they came out the way I wanted.

This meant less hassle, less heartache and pain, and certainly less financial loss. It also allowed me to be ready to fight for as much time as I could get to see my kids.

I'll be honest with you. I've been dragged through 2 divorces and came out better off financially and emotionally... with as much time as I want to be with my kids.

So I know what to be ready for. I know how to play the game with the courts, with her and her lawyers.

Whether it's my financial health, emotional health, my happiness, or the amount of time I get to spend with my kids...what I'm going to share in this video is proven, real world advice that can help you enjoy the same low hassle outcome.

During each divorce, I made sure to do certain things that protected me financially as well as my custody rights. Because I was prepared and knew what to look for and how to protect myself... the divorces were easier, faster, less painful, and didn't cost me a lot of my money.

I see my kids as often as I want, the entire thing was low hassle, and I'm much better off and happier now than I was.

Keep watching because this video will show you how to go through your divorce quickly, painlessly, and with less stress and financial burden. This information will make it so you don't lose what's rightfully yours... whether that's money or time with your kids.

It will set it up so you come out better off and happier.

Now, the story I'm about to share with you, it's pretty embarrassing and painful. After all, I almost lost half a million-dollars as well as custody of my kids.

But since it has a happy ending and shows you how I avoided losing money and my kids, I'm willing to share my story because I want you to know there's hope when it comes to making through your divorce easier and less stressful, and with less hassle.

I feel if my story can help even one guy keep his money and his kids, it's worth it.

See, I was 20 when I got married the first time. As most people will tell you, that's too young to get married because you haven't even found what makes you happy yet.

So it's hard to make someone else happy too.

At one point very early, both of us grew apart and realized we had made a mistake. So, we decided to divorce amicably.

You'd think I would have learned my lesson the first time, right? No, a few years later, I was hitched again. This time, things went perfectly for the first few years.

And then, we started fighting more and more. We stopped showing each other affection as much as we used to. We'd snap at each other when talking, we didn't treat each other like people who are in love are supposed to.

It just got to the point where we knew we weren't good for each other and were better off apart.

This time, going through the divorce, it was rough and painful. I felt alone, confused and unsure of what the future even held.

We had 2 beautiful kids together. If you have kids, the pain of being separated from them can be tough. I was so far out of my comfort zone... I felt a world of heartache.

Not to mention the anxiety of not knowing what would happen. I faced issues that scared the daylights out of me. Infidelity, bankruptcy, IRS investigations, attorneys and trials, perjury, and more.

I know this may sound pretty bad... but there were times where the thought of being without my kids for any length of time, well, it made me feel like dying.

But I want to share this story with you, to show you how deep down the rabbit hole I was. And even though this is embarrassing... talking about how I've been divorced twice... I feel I can help guys who are going through it right now.

If you're facing a divorce, believe me, I know about the anxiety, anger and resentment you're feeling. I understand first-hand how the system is usually against us and how guys normally don't get equal treatment.

Most guys end up paying too much in child support and alimony when going through divorce! I'll show you how I was able to avoid a HALF MILLION DOLLAR mistake I almost made during one of my divorces!

So believe me... there's hope. I'm much better off now and in a happier place after my 2 divorces. And it all has to do with the information I learned and used to protect myself, my money, my visitation rights, and more.

But even though my life is much better now, it can be tough going through it when you're totally unsure of what the future holds.

What will your friends think, or your family. You'll have to find a new place to live, you'll have to change all of your mail and financial papers... you'll have to set up visitation.

Should you get a lawyer or mediator, to make sure everything is win-win? Well, if you do what I show you, you can make sure you're ready to handle what you need to.

My second ex threatened me with not seeing the kids, said that she deserved half of my savings, which at the time was $500,000.

Well, needless to say, I was going to battle her tooth and nail on custody and finances. I wasn't about to let her take half a million-dollars and my kids from me!

And you know what? That divorce changed everything for me because I realized that if I was feeling alone and taken advantage of, I'm sure there were other guys who felt the same way.

I was then that I decided to make it my mission to help others who were dealing with the uncertainty of divorce... guys who could use some guidance through the minefields, so you don't end up stepping on landmines like almost losing $500,000 and custody!

That was the day I declared to not only help myself... I was going to help other men who were facing divorce and weren't sure the steps to take.

I didn't want guys to go into a divorce unsure and unprepared. I knew I could help fill them in on what to look out for, without having to hire a lawyer just to learn the basics.

Sure, there are times a lawyer is needed, but you can prepare yourself regarding custody rights as a parent and financial aspects.

My whole deal is, I just want divorce to be fair for both and easier on you and the kids. I don't want her to get your money, or full custody of the kids.

This is about fairness, it's about protecting your rights and what's yours.

If she's looking to take you to the cleaners, or take your kids away... I'm trying to prevent that kind of stuff with this video.

As I was battling it out with my ex in court... I vowed to read every book on divorce, and look for clues that would help protect my money and assets. More importantly, I wanted to make sure I would have split custody of my kids.

It doesn't take a rocket scientist to realize that often times, courts look in the woman's favor, because, well, because she's a woman and courts usually side with the Mom.

What about us guys? Who was looking out for us? Who was going to make sure guys got a fair shake, and weren't taken advantage of.

That's why I decided to take it upon myself to create the first and only program specific for men, written by a guy, that would help you go through the entire divorce proceedings a lot easier, with less hassle and stress.

Not only that... your custodial rights would be protected, your money wouldn't be unfairly taken, and you'd be informed on important things that a lot of men just don't know until it's too late.

The good news for you is... not only did I figure out how to protect my rights and go through this divorce a lot easier... I've written down the steps I took so that other men could go through theirs a lot faster, easier, and less stressful too.

I'll share my discovery in just a moment. So keep watching.

Look, I'm just a regular, average guy who happened to go through 2 divorces. By learning what my rights were and defending myself against attacks on my money and custody rights, I was able to protect myself, go through divorce faster and easier, and with less hassle.

In fact, I was able to come out the other end happier and in better shape, in all areas.

And now my mission is to help other guys avoid the hell I went through. Because of my experience with all that pain and heartache... I discovered a blueprint, a system that finally allows guys like you and me to come out better off when going through a divorce.

Getting a divorce doesn't mean one side has to win and the other side has to lose. It doesn't mean you're automatically going to lose money, or not see your kids as often as you want, or that your life is going to be over.

If you have certain information at your disposal... you can be prepared and ready when the time comes, so you're not caught off guard.

Being informed means you can defend yourself, hire the right help if needed, and can make sure you're looking out for your best interests and the best interests of the kids.

Even if your ex seems to be willing to go along with everything you talk about, that doesn't mean that will be the case once papers are served and lawyers come into play.

Failing to plan is planning to fail, and I don't want you to fail at this. You can go through your divorce a lot faster, easier, and with less hassle than you would without knowing this information.

You can protect yourself financially and when it comes to custody of the kids.

Look, the main reason why you hear of so many horror stories of guys who got taken for all they have, or they're not allowed to see their kids as much as they want, is because they weren't prepared.

No matter how bad the horror stories are that you hear, don't feel like you have to be one of them. You have rights, you deserve to be treated fairly and your kids deserve to have both parents happy.

But that doesn't necessarily mean hiring a $300 per hour attorney.

A lot of questions I can answer for you with the information I've learned during my 2 divorce proceedings.

There's a way to be prepared and ready and it doesn't take an expensive lawyer to give you the information that can help protect your finances, custody, and rights.

As a man who has gone through this twice, I can tell you what to watch out for, what to avoid, what to protect yourself from, and how to make sure you're financially covered as well as making sure your custody rights aren't violated.

I don't want you to suffer through some long, painful, drawn out divorce. I certainly know that's not what you want for you and your kids.

There's no reason you can't come out with your pride, finances, and custody intact. Instead of feeling bitter and angry that you got "taken"... you can quickly and easily get through your divorce with less hassle and heartache... so you can move on and get back to dating when ready.

No custody battles or worry about losing your money!

Bottom line, the faster and easier you can make it through this divorce without any battles or legal issues the faster you and your kids can move on with life.

Look, no matter how bad she may try and make you feel, you are NOT to blame for this. Because we're men, we're often looked at as the villains and the bad guys... so our rights and feelings aren't usually taken into consideration by the courts or lawyers.

Well, not only is that NOT fair, I refused to take part in it. I also refuse to see men suffer needlessly because they're unsure about what to do when going through a divorce.

I can help when it comes to knowing your custody rights, I can help you avoid getting taken financially... like when I almost lost $500,000 because of a mistake I almost made.

I can help you feel like there's light at the end of the tunnel, I can help you build yourself back up, so you feel confident and secure in yourself again.

The truth is, WHILE going through a divorce, it can be tough to think straight and even know what to do.

I've learned some things you can do to make your divorce go a lot smoother and with less hassle... so you can come out better off on the other side. That's right, you can be happier and ready to move on with your life... and you can start getting ready right now.

The truth is, there's a time and place to start dating again. If you start dating too soon, your emotions will show and may end up driving away a good woman.

I'll show you how to avoid letting divorce spoil your love life... by showing you the fastest and easiest way to get back dating.

I'll show you how to get started on your new life. You're able to get back to being happy and feeling confident a lot faster and easier. You feel like you're better off, like you can start dating again because you don't feel like the divorce crushed you emotionally.

I want to show you how to grab hold of that hope and optimism. My info can make your divorce a whole lot smoother and easier to go through.

You don't have to worry about your finances being on the line, and your money taken from you. You don't have to worry about possibly losing custody of your kids.

Believe me, you have rights... and my information can help protect those rights. I'll show you how to be secure and confident... instead of self-conscious and insecure like a lot of guys who let their emotions get the best of them, to the point where they feel like their entire world is crashing around them.

Believe me, when you're prepared... your divorce will be a lot easier on you financially and emotionally. You're in a happier, healthier, better place.

Men who don't prepare or who don't close this chapter in their lives... they forever let this divorce be a painful reminder for them, so they're unable to move on.

It can negatively effect work, finances, relationships with your friends, family, and children. And it can keep you from starting over because you don't feel strong enough to start dating again.

That's NOT what I want for you too. I want you to come out from this dark, painful situation and be happier and better off. And that can only happen if you're prepared.

I'll hand you one tip that can make sure you're able to see your kids as often as you want and that your custodial rights are protected. What's more, I'll share the information I used to save me HALF A MILLION DOLLARS!

That's right, you'll learn how I almost lost $500,000 and how you can protect yourself financially.

Just picture it. Your divorce is final, you both went through it civilly and looking out for your kids best interests. You were well informed so you were able to protect your financial and custodial rights.

What's more, with all the planning and preparations you did, you can get started on your new life and future much sooner.

Again, I've been there, done that, so I get all of this. I really do. The entire reason I created this video was so that you didn't have to suffer through the heartache and pain. With my help, you can eliminate the worry, stress, and anxiety that can happen when you have no idea what to expect, or what's going to happen.

And getting back to being a strong, confident, happy Dad is what's best for your kids. I was able to do that with the information I learned, so I'm now helping other men to get back to feeling whole again... financially and emotionally.

From custody, to financial protection, to being emotionally strong so you can get back to dating again... wouldn't you feel more confident and secure if you were prepared for just about any situation you'll face when going through divorce?

Again, that's why I made this video. My goal is to offer guys who are going through divorce an, easier, low hassle way to get through it and come out better off and happier.

Most guys get out of a divorce and are crushed. They're sad, angry, hurt, and feel upset if their ex tried to take more than her fair share of money or assets.

I can help you be prepared for the worst, so if it happens... you're ready. You'll also know what's going on each step... so you can be ready and plan for what you need to plan for, so you can get back to being happy again.

Do me a favor. I want you to KNOW that you WILL be better off for this. You WILL come out happier and stronger. You WILL be happy and everything WILL be fine and that everything will work out.

I know, because I've been able to do this. You just have to be prepared, and that's what I'm going to do for you right now... is to prepare you for all you need to know when going through a divorce.

You'll come out happier and realize that you have your whole life ahead of you.

You'll realize that your kids will be fine, and you'll be in their lives as much as possible. Your financial situation hasn't suffered, you weren't taken to the cleaners, and you're happy and secure in what the future holds.

Look, I know this is a tough time. Believe me, as a guy who went through 2 divorces... it sucks. I know that personally.

But it does get better. And I want to help you get through it a lot easier.

My goal is to help you survive and THRIVE during what may be the toughest time of your life. My goal is to help you save on legal bills, keep more of your money, and spend as much time with your kids as possible.

I want to make sure you don't end up financially broke or lose custody of your kids. I want you to see your kids as much as you want, and I want the entire process to go smoothly so you're soon back dating.

Planning with what I'm about to share will prevent you from feeling overwhelmed and confused when going through a divorce.

I've learned a lot of tips and techniques that will help you go through your divorce a lot easier and without the usual stress, hassle, confusion, and fear of the unknown.

Maybe you're worried and stressed out about your finances? Maybe you're worried about what your family will think of your "failed" marriage... or who your friends will side with. Maybe you're worried you'll end up alone. Maybe you're worried about not being able to see your kids as much as you want?

I don't bring these things up to make you feel bad... I just want you to know that I understand because I've been there too.

But like I said... there are things you can do to prepare yourself to come out ahead financially, emotionally, and with rights to custody. What that means is... you can go through the divorce more informed and educated... which helps put your mind at ease.

The truth is...as I learned tips and techniques that helped me get through divorce with less stress, worry, and financial loss... I felt I could help other guys in this situation by taking away “fear of the unknown.” That’s what led me to create my full-length audio course... Introducing “Divorce Tool Box for Men”.

I created “Divorce Toolbox for Men”... the first and only audio series created to help men not only survive their divorce... but thrive during and after it!

This is literally an A to Z complete resource for men who want to overcome the major challenges of divorce.

I’ll prepare you for the legal and financial issues, emotional and physical challenges, work and dating concerns, and more. With this audio course designed just for guys who are facing divorce... you get 75 minutes of solid, actionable advice you can use to help ease the pain and move through it with more confidence and peace of mind.

The “toolbox” consists of 6 audio modules and 6 e-books that show you how to get through your divorce a lot faster, easier, and with less hassle and financial strain or custody issues.

My program can help you get rid of the stress, worry, and anxiety that comes from going through a divorce.

Not only that, but this comprehensive “toolbox” can help you get back to living a happy, healthy life that includes dating again!

Even if you feel hopeless right now, this program can be the light at the end of the tunnel... giving you hope that everything will be okay, even though you can't see that right now.

Freeing yourself of anxiety, panic, anger, and resentment. Feeling full of confidence and self-esteem. Being in total control of your finances. I want to help you achieve these things, and I want to help by giving you access to my information.

See, from years of experience dealing with 2 separate divorces and MANY years of soul-searching – I've compiled what you need to know to get through your divorce as easy, conveniently, and low hassle as possible.

The truth is... at one time, I was facing divorce in the face and on the verge of going broke and being an emotional wreck. I had to face living life without my kids being with me all the time. And it was heart wrenching.

But I made it through, twice... and actually came out from it a better man. That's right, not only did I survive... I THRIVED and came away better off!

And I don't want you to think reading any book will help.

While there are books available by lawyers, psychologists, marriage counselors, and educators... few offer actual step by step techniques that GUYS can use to get through the pain and anguish of divorce.

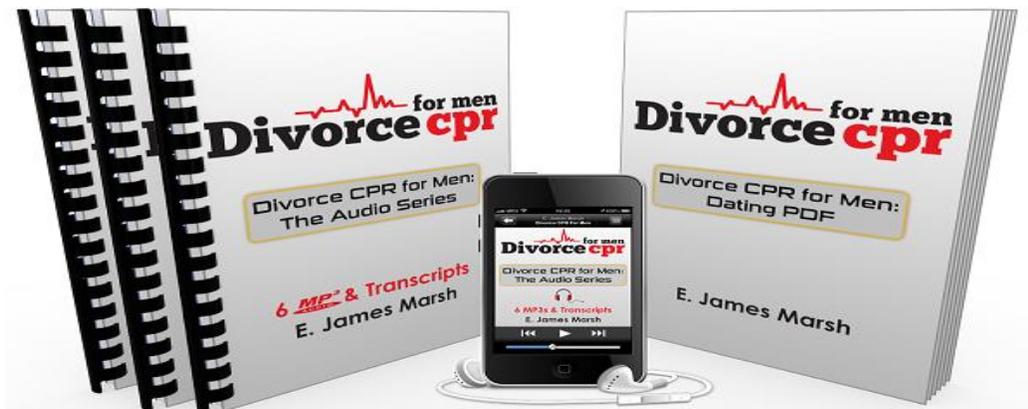

Most "divorce guides" are written by therapists or counselors who've never even gone through a divorce, so they're looking at it from the outside. They "think" they know how to help guys through their divorce... because they've earned a degree from school that says they can help.

Well, there's a huge difference between real world, applicable advice from a guy who has survived and thrived through 2 divorces... and someone giving you book smarts.

This program is different because it's FOR men and it was created BY a man who has been divorced twice. In other words, the "Divorce Toolbox for Men" contains step by step advice unique to men.

Most other programs are NOT written FOR guys by a guy who has gone through divorce. They are written by book-smart therapists who will suggest some "exercises" to work through.

I can help you go through your divorce and do it faster, easier, and with less hassle. Not only that... but go through it without losing custody and without going broke. As you listen to the 6 modules, you'll find the most important information you need to know to go through your divorce with less pain and problems... and actually come out better.

Let me show you what exactly you'll learn in each of the following modules...

In Module 1, you'll learn important legal issues including:

- How do you find the right attorney who will represent you to the best of their ability for your exact situation?
- What you should expect from your attorney and what questions should you ask
- How to make sure you pick the best representation you can afford... as well as someone who will fight for your custodial rights and finances.

- Why gaining custody of your children is not always in your ex's favor... and how to make sure you do what's best for your kids.
- How to make sure you're completely covered when it comes to your rights and making sure they're not violated

In Module 2, learn how to protect your financial interests:

- Learn how you can save thousands of dollars with some simple actions (These two moves alone saved me $500,000!)
- Find out what you must do with your credit cards and bank accounts before divorce papers are filed
- Discover why a credit report might be your best financial tool no matter how little you know about money
- How to make sure you don't take a huge credit hit or financial loss during a divorce
- How to actually come out better off financially after a divorce

Module 3 goes into the emotional issues most men face. You learn:

- What the single most important thing is that you can do to re-balance your emotions and feelings
- How to find good competent help no matter where you live
- Why making yourself whole again is the most important step
- Why you really need to be by yourself (Yes, you read that correctly!)

In Module 4 of the “Divorce Toolbox for Men” I give you my number one reason I’m still functioning today. You’ll learn about:

- How men sabotage themselves by not taking care of their physical health
- Why doing just this one thing can ramp up your self-confidence like nothing else during a divorce (And no, women have nothing to do with this)
- What are the key essentials for feeling better quickly... both emotionally and physically (Hint: Think diet, nutrition and the Mayo Clinic)
- Why taking care of yourself and making yourself happy is the best thing you can do for your kids too

Module 5 goes into issues you might face at work and answers questions as:

- What should you tell your employer about your divorce, if anything
- Why your job could be the best thing for you during a divorce
- How federal employees can get time off if they are going through a divorce
- How to make sure work place gossip doesn't get out of hand

Module 6 talks about dating and divorce.

- Should you be dating during a divorce?
- What any competent therapist will tell a man about dating and divorce
- How to find “healthy” women to date when the time is right
- How to make sure you're healthy and whole again, so you're ready to date
- What you must do before you even think about dating again

This audio course will not only help you go through the divorce process with less hassle... you'll also come out ahead and BETTER than before!

Imagine waking up each day happy instead of feeling sad and depressed. Imagine your kids being happy, healthy, and well-adjusted... despite their parents being divorced.

You'll be amazed at how easy these things are when you know these secrets.

Look, I'm tired of seeing guys lose their homes, money, custody, and more. I'm tired of seeing them lose their life savings and be forced to struggle for the rest of their lives to make child support and alimony payments.

If you're like a lot of the guys I talk to who are facing divorce... they feel completely overwhelmed, scared, and worried that they'll lose all their money and worse, their kids!

If you're experiencing something like this right now, it's probably become a dark cloud hanging over you. It's hard to feel happy when divorce is getting in the way of living the way you want.

You can use my Divorce Toolbox to make your time during this divorce a lot more manageable, so you can make this tough time a lot easier on you and your kids.

And believe me, I want to make sure you're not taken for more money, just in spite. I can tell you from experience... almost losing $500,000 can really crush your spirits!

And I definitely don't want you to sacrifice ANY time with your kids... you should get as much time as you want with them. Again, this course will help you get through your divorce with less strain, stress, and hassle... so you can get a "fresh start" in your life.

I want you to know that you CAN and WILL be happier and actually better off after your divorce than you were before. It truly felt like a "fresh start" when my divorce was final.

My life seemed to be better and more exciting. But sure, in the meantime... while you're going through it, it can be tough on you.

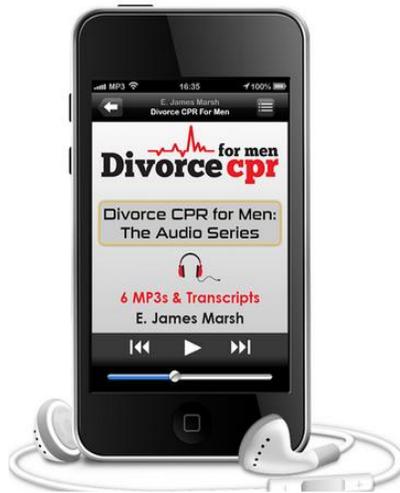

Thankfully... this course helps you manage going through the divorce. And because of that, once your divorce is final... you'll realize that you feel more prepared to start fresh. You may even feel comfortable enough to start dating again.

When you're prepared for what to expect during a divorce, you feel more confident, more positive, and more upbeat.

These secrets helped me get through my divorce... and now that I know exactly what it takes to make the entire divorce process easier... you can use my advice as a shortcut.

Divorce Tool Box for men contains everything you need to know to make sure your divorce goes as smooth and easy as possible... with less stress, worry, and hassle.

In fact, the tips revealed in this will actually help you make your divorce as quick and low hassle as possible. You'll stand a much better chance of things going your way.

Here's a Sample of what You'll Learn...

- The reason why you should never hire an attorney before you do THIS
- The strange truth about how divorce directly affects your ability to work!
- How to get back into the dating game the right way!
- The counter intuitive secrets divorce attorneys know, but never tell you about!
- How to avoid mistakes that destroy your chance of an easy divorce
- How to find the right attorney for you and your situation
- How to negotiate alimony and child support
- Avoid common mistakes other men make ... saving you time & money
- How to communicate with your kids during a divorce
- How to get back on your feet quickly after a divorce
- How to protect your assets and save thousands of dollars on your divorce
- How to avoid getting tangled in a long, drawn-out battle
- How to go through divorce while spending less than you want!
- How to lower your stress during a divorce
- How to get back to a normal life as quickly as possible following a divorce

You'll also get the transcript for each audio module so you can use for reference whenever you need to quickly find that helpful suggestion or idea.

I'm confident this series will help you deal with your divorce, ease the pain, and provide the knowledge that helps you move on a lot faster. I know it sure did with me and my two young sons.

You'll learn the ins and outs of hiring a good lawyer, taking care of your finances, making sure you're emotionally and physically healthy, dealing with a job and divorce, the basics for starting to date, and more.

And best of all, this is in simple language and is extremely easy to understand. You won't find "legal speak". What you'll find are answers to your questions and the steps to take if you want to overcome the stress and anxiety that comes from divorce. These are the same secrets I used to make divorce less painful... both emotionally and financially.

And I feel these secrets will work for you! After you've gone through the 6 modules ... what once appeared dark and mysterious will suddenly become clear and easy!

But don't just take my word for it...

"don't let stress, despair, guilt over a failed marriage, and depression stop you from preparing as best you can for the rest of your life. Make a small investment in your future."- B. Burns

"(Divorce Toolbox for Men)...is what you need to arm yourself with to protect yourself from a system that is stacked against you from the start. Because you will make things much worse if you make even one of these mistakes..."-Anonymous

"What people seem to forget is that men comprise 50% of the divorce statistics and unlike what every single Hollywood movie has said for 30 years, not all men are jerks and not all men are trying to ruin their ex-wives in the proceedings. This is CRITICAL for any man going through divorce. It's not JUST money you save here, it's also terrible problems later..."- D. Harris

"Very helpful tips I wish I would have had several months ago. I am now 10 months in the process and now just starting to be able to complete daily functions again. If armed with the knowledge presented (here) immediately following the discovery of my marriage ending, I'm sure I would have been at this stage several months sooner. If you are divorcing or know someone who is divorcing, Divorce Toolbox for Men is a must." - G. Iannotta

Look, there are 2 things you can do from here on out. You can try and go at this alone, and try to avoid the landmines in the battlefield known as divorce.

You can try and maneuver the pathway alone, and hope it doesn't end up costing you more in money than it should. You can hope you don't risk losing time with your kids.

And sure, you can hire an expensive attorney to help you through the process. But let's be honest, a lot of lawyers aren't exactly in this because they want you happy.

No, a lot of times, these lawyers are after a quick paycheck, and will try to push the divorce through so much faster at YOUR expense.

Divorce attorneys charge $300 to $500 per hour, and you can be sure that a lot of them haven't gone through 2 divorces like I have. They don't know the ins and outs like I do.

Do you really want to hire an attorney for $500 per hour, when it's possible that all you need is information you'll find in my program, and possibly a mediator who can help facilitate the process and make sure everything is done fairly. That will certainly be less money than an attorney charges.

Even if you pay an attorney $300 to $500 an hour or more...they won't help you in all areas of your life like this program. This program focuses on your emotional, financial, and physical well being. It will help you get back to feeling like yourself again, by improving all areas of your life.

Look, what price can you put on cutting out hours of unnecessary stress, anxiety, and confusion? What would you pay for advice that could help you hang on to your kids, your money, your house and your retirement?

Believe me, going through your divorce alone isn't the best decision. It can feel lonely and it can be challenging when you don't know what to expect. It can be tough to make decisions that are in your best interests if you're not caught up on legal rights like custody or finances.

You're much better off having someone in your corner, like a guy who has gone through 2 divorces and actually came out better off in the end. I'm happier than I've ever been, I get to see my 2 kids as often as I want, I didn't lose $500,000 like I almost did, and I'm back dating and enjoying my life.

Believe me, having me in your corner is the fastest, easiest, and low hassle way to make it through your divorce and come out happier in the end.

I've already done all the work for you, and can tell you what to expect, what to watch out for, and what to be ready for. I can also make sure your finances are protected and your custody rights aren't taken from you.

Why go through this alone, why start from scratch and reinvent the wheel when you can copy my step by step blueprint I personally used to go through my divorce easier and with less stress, worry, and anxiety. I'm happier and in a better place and I can help you enjoy the same success and happiness.

Being well prepared was certainly a load off my chest. Each time I learned something I knew would help me in my divorce, it felt like a huge weight was lifted off my shoulders.

And as you're going through my advice, you'll feel the confidence and feelings that everything will be okay. You'll be able to enjoy the happiness and peace of mind you deserve.

Even though each divorce has different situations and circumstances... there are common things that can happen. Things like custody issues, financial battles division of assets, and more.

So even though I'm not saying this will be any kind of miracle solution with answers to every question comes up, having this information can definitely make divorce easier.

That's because you're getting real world answers and step by step advice from a guy who has gone through 2 divorces and came out better off!

So if you'd like a faster, easier and low hassle way to make it through your divorce with less stress, worry, and anxiety... if you'd like to come out the other side better off so you can move on with your life... this will give you the confidence and assurance you need.

From one guy to another... I promise this information will prepare you for any kind of financial and custodial issues and will lift a lot of worry, stress, and weight off your back.

Bottom line, I'm just trying to make it easier, less stressful, and less costly for you to go through your divorce, so you can come out better off.

I also want to make it easier to keep your custodial rights intact, and make sure you're able to see your kids as often as you want.

And like I said, you won't have to spend so much money on an expensive divorce attorney, unless you absolutely have to. And I'll talk about potential situations when it's in your best interests to do so.

Think about this, if the only thing that Divorce Tool Box did was to help you get rid of a lot of the worry, stress, and anxiety that divorce can cause it would be worth $200, yes?

If the only thing this did was to help you save money on your finances so you don't get taken for a ride and lose a lot of money during a divorce, it would be worth $200? After all, just one of these tips saved me from making a $500,000 financial mistake. That's right, I saved myself a half million dollars following the Divorce Tool box.

If the only thing that this did was show you what it takes so you don't risk not seeing your kids as much as you want... and you get to spend as much time with them as possible... that is worth $200, right?

The good news is... this program does every one of those things, and more! But you're not going to pay $200. It won't even cost you $100. Just for watching this video, I want to offer you an even better deal for you.

When you order today, you get a complete resource guide that's full of just about every web resource you can use to overcome your divorce as quickly and easily as possible.

You'll get information on divorce attorneys, financial planning, therapists, fitness and nutrition, information on being productive at work, and dating! "Divorce CPR for Men Resources Guide" will be another helpful tool to keep away the "fear of the unknown."

You'll find valuable resources that would take you hours to discover on your own. This resources guide is yours FREE if you order now.

Believe me, even without this bonus, the program is a great deal because it's going to help you go through your divorce so much easier, and with less hassle and problems.

You'll enjoy more confidence and peace of mind... knowing it will all work out in your favor. You owe it to yourself to be happy, you deserve to be in a good place, and I'll do my best to try and help you get there.

Of course, you can just continue doing the same things you're doing. But if you're not sure what to do, or you have concern over your finances and what your ex will try and take... or if you're concerned about custody rights... that's not what I want for you. So let's make this an easy decision, okay.

My dream is to help as many guys as possible make it through their divorces a lot easier and faster, with less anxiety, worry, and stress. If I can help you go through it with less hassle, and with more happiness, I'll know my job is done. So I don't want finances to be the reason that stops you from getting this.

Since you're watching this video presentation today, and you've made it this far, it shows me that you're serious about making it through your divorce easier and coming out better from it.

You can grab this program right through this video you're watching, for the low price of just $47. That's literally about 15 minutes of a divorce attorney's time... and they won't help you emotionally like this will.

The reason why it's this inexpensive is simple: I realized that a LOT of men are under considerable financial pressure due to the divorce they're going through. I know I was.

So I wanted to keep the price as low so as many men as possible could get this advice.

That's why this program isn't a cost... because instead of paying $500 per hour for a divorce attorney to make cold, heartless decisions. You can invest a tiny fraction of that, and be prepared and well planned for what will happen... saving you money on an attorney as well as possible money your ex may try to take from you. That's it.

Just $47 and you'll be well prepared to make it through divorce with less chance of losing money or custodial rights. Not knowing what's going to happen can cause anxiety. This program can prepare you for what will happen, so you're ready to handle it each step.

That alone will get rid of the anxiety or stress that can come from the unknown. That's why this is worth every penny of the $47, especially when a $500 per hour lawyer won't look out for your emotional health as well.

This $47 will help you keep your money you earned, it will help you keep your parental rights, and it will help you go through the divorce easier, and with less hassle. This way, you can come out happier and better off... ready to move on and date sooner.

I don't want you to go through the same suffering and pain I went through. I want you to know there's a faster way out, there's a way to the light at the end of the tunnel... and I can show it to you.

And you also get a complete 100% money back guarantee with this program. That's right, don't even make up your mind right now. Just go ahead and take 30 days to listen to the course and go through the 6 modules.

Use what you've learned. If you're not 100% completely thrilled... just send me an email and I'll give you a "no questions asked" refund. That means there's zero risk. I think you'll agree, that's pretty fair.

If you're ready to say "Goodbye" to the fear, stress and anxiety caused by not knowing what to expect during your divorce... here's your chance. And remember, unless you take action now, you may never take action, or do it when it's too late and you realize your finances or custodial rights are under attack.

Don't do what some guys do, and put it off for a "few days". A few days could turn into a few week and then a few months, and you're no where near the resolution you wanted. So, make sure you get what you really want... by taking action now.

You get the 75 minute "toolbox" consists of 6 audio modules and 6 e-books that spell out in easy-to-understand language what to do to get through your divorce a lot faster and easier.

In module 1, I discuss legal issues and how to find an attorney who has your best interests in mind. Our second module deals with money and finances. I'll suggest things you can do to save thousands of dollars.

Module 3 of the "Divorce Toolbox for Men" talks about the emotional aspects of divorce on men. If you truly want to come out happier after your divorce... this is for you. Physical health is the topic of module 4 and you'll see how important it is to take care of yourself when going through a stressful time. This module will show you why I'm functioning at a high level after my divorce.

Module 5 talks about work issues and answers questions such as how do you perform your job going through a divorce or as a single father. Finally, in module 6, we discuss Dating...should you or shouldn't you...and why?

Listening to the 6 modules will help you survive and THRIVE after your divorce and do it with less hassle. You'll also have PDFs of the scripts to reference back to after listening to each module. Plus, you get the "Divorce Toolbox for Men 'Resources' Guide.

This is your chance to get back to living a happy, healthy life, as fast and easy and low hassle as possible! Using my methods WILL help you come away WITHOUT the baggage that so many men carry.

So if you're ready for a bright future, a new hope, and a BETTER life than before your divorce... my program will help you get a fresh start and open a new chapter in life. You can overcome the pain and heartache you're dealing with. No more worry, stress, and fear of the unknown. You'll skyrocket your confidence.

And you know something... you deserve this. It's important that you get the advice and information you need to protect yourself financially as well as with custody rights.
